Why it works in grocery retail

1

Real chain capacity

We produce for chain-level orders with monthly planning coordinated against your buying calendar, not order by order.

2

Ready for your system

EAN-13 packaging and a full technical sheet: it enters your catalogue without extra setup work for your team.

3

Private label if you want it

We develop a full line under your own brand — recipe, packaging and exclusive flavours — with regional exclusivity agreements.

4

Less shelf waste

The shelf life is long for an artisan cookie, which cuts date-driven withdrawal compared with fresh patisserie.
